

Growing Resilient Youth in Transition

 trybe

GRYT SERVICE

Do you know any youth who...

came from an institution or rehabilitation programme?

is seeking help in reintegrating back into the community?

wants to positively contribute to society?

needs positive influences in life?

REFER THE YOUTH TO THE GRYT SERVICE

The Growing Resilient Youth in Transition (GRYT) service is Trybe's solution in combating recidivism and regression among youth offenders and probationers. The primary objective of GRYT is to provide continued support for youths transitioning from institutions into the community.

Flip this paper for more details>>

For more details, visit www.trybe.org/reintegration/#gryt

GRYT Service

THE ISSUE

Lack of structured post-rehabilitation care for youths who are transitioning out of institutions into the community, leading them back to a negative lifestyle

ABOUT THE SERVICE

- A 14 to 26-month service, depending on the length of duration of community probation
- Aims to guide the youth to live a positive lifestyle
- Support the integration of the youth back into the community

OUR CLIENTS

- Youth aged 13-21
- Will be transitioning from institution back to a community
- Keen to seek help

OUR GOALS

- Better rehabilitation outcomes
- Continued support for the youth as they re-integrate into the community
- For the youths to exhibit a reduction in offending behaviour
- For the youths to contribute positively to society